

The Contemporary World History Project

CWHP 2015 Focus Questions

Gender Rights

How can countries work together to increase the social, political, and economic status of women worldwide?

Minority Rights

How can the global community promote equality and respect for all minority or marginalized groups?

World Health

What are the pressing international health concerns, and how can the global community address them?

Global Warming

How can the global community reduce global greenhouse emissions by 80% by the year 2050?

Trade

How can collaboration between governments, multi-national businesses, and labor groups promote trade that benefits all global citizens?

Child Labor

How can developed and developing countries work together to reduce child labor?

Nuclear Non-Proliferation (NNP)

How can countries balance the drive for nuclear energy with its risks?

Terrorism

How can countries collaborate to address the causes and effects of terrorism?

Central question: What factors both prevent and promote cooperation between nations?

